LATEST UPDATES

Uhdada Ghuyats'ulhtuk (We Talk About Stories) Media Club: From the Ashes

May 25, 2022: 3:30pm-5:30pm Discussion session for From the Ashes: My Story of Being Métis, Homeless, and Finding My Way by Jesse Thistle

Opportunity from the Indigenous Education Department:

Dzen Hoonzoo/Dzenes Wuzoo/Good Day – We have ordered books and would like to promote the Uhdada Ghuyats'ulhtuk (We Talk About Stories) Media Club opportunity to you and the staff in your building. Please share the poster, quotes below and video of the author for context. This is a great follow up to the recent screening of the Us and Them documentary. It is rated in Focused Education for grades 11-12 but in this context is a great pro-d opportunity to explore Indigenous experiences especially in relation to the impact of education and identity for Indigenous learners.

#1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER / Winner, Kobo Emerging Writer Prize Nonfiction / Winner, Indigenous Voices Awards / Winner, High Plains Book Awards / Finalist, CBC Canada Reads / A Globe and Mail Book of the Year / An Indigo Book of the Year / A CBC Best Canadian Nonfiction Book of the Year.

In this extraordinary and inspiring debut memoir, Jesse Thistle, once a high school dropout and now a rising Indigenous scholar, chronicles his life on the streets and how he overcame trauma and addiction to discover the truth about who he is:

Navigating Math Up; A Guide to Improving Understanding and Performance in Mathematics

Thursday May 12 from 3:15 to 4:15pm via Teams.

In this session Susan Howell, the publisher for MathUp, will walk us through MathUp to give teachers an overall view of the resource and its many components. Teacher's will finish with a better understanding of how to access the professional learning, student lessons and materials, and BC assessment and curriculum support.

Register on PD Reg if interested.

Glitches in the BAS Electronic Recording Form

**for those teachers/schools who are making use of the BAS Electronic Recording Form

Due to glitches found in the BAS Electronic Recording Form found on the SD57 Hub, an updated spreadsheet has been uploaded – April 22. Please be aware, this has no effect on MyEd BAS data entry.

If you downloaded the previous version, please delete it and make use of the updated version.

If you entered your BAS results (independent level) into the previous version, you have 2 choices:

1. Download the updated version and re-enter your data, or
2. Send the spreadsheet with your data entered (previous version) to Nancy Reid, and she will make sure it gets it entered into the updated version. It will then be sent back to you as soon as possible.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to Nancy Reid (nreid@sd57.bc.ca)

Moose Hide Campaign Day – May 12, 2022 – School/Class/District Invitation

Register your students to join schools from coast to coast to coast for this powerful and unique one-hour livestream event to learn more about reconciliation and the importance of standing up against violence towards women and children.

This is a tangible Reconciliation in Action opportunity for schools in every corner of Canada.

Register your class, school or entire district!

On the day, expect...

- Ceremony
- Cultural performances by Indigenous artists
- TikToker Theland Kicknosway as our Youth Keynote speaker
- Words from our co-founders
- Engaging and interactive workshop options which are pre-recorded to use as a tool leading up to Moose Hide Campaign Day, on the day, or as follow up to the event

Grounded in ceremony and Indigenous values, the Moose Hide Campaign is a grassroots movement inviting Indigenous and non-Indigenous men and boys, alongside all Canadians, to stand up against violence towards women and children. Wearing a moose hide pin is an outward sign of your commitment to honour, respect, and protect the women and children in your life and to work together to end violence against women and children.

To learn more about the Moose Hide Campaign and our teaching resources, please visit our website. Don't forget to order your moose hide pins here.

We look forward to welcoming you to our ceremony! Let's keep building a society free from violence. ~ The Moose Hide Campaign Team

FREE Dance Party Opportunity with the Canada's National Ballet School

Each year Canada's National Ballet School (NBS) commissions Canadian artists to create a piece of choreography that embodies a thoughtful theme, and culminates in a national dance party to bring people together and celebrate the joy of movement. Last year, thousands of Canadians from coast-to-coast-to-coast tuned in to NBS' national broadcast and we are excited to announce that the 2022 Sharing Dance Day Broadcast will stream live on Thursday, June 2nd!

Featuring the choreography by Aïcha Bastien-N'Diaye and Starr Muranko, and workshops from artists from across the country this year promises to be another great year! We would love for you and those in your community to join us!

How to bring Sharing Dance Day into the classroom:

- Learn the Sharing Dance Day Choreography – with step-by-step instructional videos adapted for different grade levels, teachers can easily bring dance into the classroom, no dance experience required!
- Tune in to the NBS website, on June 2nd at 12:30pm EDT (9:30am PST) to watch the broadcast and dance along with thousands of other Canadians.

If you have any questions about the event or other ways your classrooms can get involved or about the Educator Roadmap, please reach out to Martine Plourde (she/her) | Senior Coordinator, External Affairs for Canada's National Ballet School | L'École nationale de ballet du Canada 400 Jarvis Street | Toronto ON Canada M4Y 2G6 416.964.3780 x2060 martine.plourde@nbs-enb.ca | www.nbs-enb.ca

Looking forward to dancing with you all on June 2nd!
