Lamoureux is committed to reconciliation and contributing to an even better Canada for all children to grow up in.

Becoming a Behavioural Detective Workshop with Kim Barthel

Becoming a Behavioural Detective

January 28th, 9:00am to 4:30pm – UNBC 7-170/172 Bentley Centre

Cost: $50.00, lunch provided

Hosted by YMCA of Northern BC, Child Care Resource & Referral

We have Kim Barthel coming to Prince George to speak about Challenging Behaviours in a workshop called “Becoming a Behavioural Detective.”

There is always a reason for the behaviour! This workshop with Kim Barthel, OTR will assist Early Childhood Professionals as well as parents, in supporting children with issues that can result in “challenging behaviours.” Participants will be invited to become “Behavioural Detectives,” using clinical reasoning to look deeper than the surface actions we observe in our kids, aiming to shift our focus from “managing behaviour” to understanding behaviour. Topics such as developmental disabilities, attachment strategies, trauma, and sensory processing will be covered.

Upcoming Professional Development from Curriculum Innovation

Please register on PD Reg: <https://schdist57.sharepoint.com/sites/pdhub>

- November 30th, 3:30pm to 4:30pm: Now What? Writing Snapshot and BAS (Benchmark Assessment System): Grades 4-7 (In-Person at Van Bien Training & Development Centre)

“So, I've completed the BAS and Writing Snapshot with my students... Now What?” Join Nancy Reid as we work together to take a look at the information we have learned about students' literacy strengths and stretches, and what the next steps could be instructionally. Please bring along your students' BAS and/or Writing Snapshots (with the highlighted performance standard for each student) to refer to, and any other literacy information you may have about your students. Please be prepared to share and discuss instructional ideas with colleagues.
